

YOURS FREE:

5 Sanity Saving Tools Every Lazy Bride Needs

I cannot imagine planning a wedding without these five tools.
Thanks to them, I can juggle multiple weddings at one time without dropping any balls.
I use them everyday and I know they'll make your planning life a whole lot easier and lazier ;)

5 Sanity Saving Planning Tools Every Lazy Bride Needs

EVERNOTE

It's like a giant planning notebook but better! You can create files for every area of the wedding, Make notes, upload photos, keep track of website addresses, upload contracts and never lose track of where you're at with your vendors. Because you can access this info from all your devices, you can plan on the go.

<https://evernote.com/>

MINT

What's the #1 stressor for couples? Money. Thanks to Mint, you can keep track of exactly where all those pennies are going. Create your wedding budget and set up notifications so you'll never miss a vendor payment. Connect your bank accounts, credit cards and bill payments all in one app so you're always on top of your finances.

<https://www.mint.com/>

ALLSEATED

It's a seating app, a guest list coordinator, a venue map and a timeline creator all in one. Allseated offers exact dimensions mapped out for your venue with a 3-D walkthrough feature! Manage your guests' meal choices, drag & drop them to their seats and then share everything with your vendors.

<http://www.allseated.com/>

WEDDING HAPPY

It's a planner in your pocket - literally! Download for free, upload your wedding date and boom! It outlines your deadlines for every wedding task and sends you notifications. Find vendors, keep track of payments, connect with your honey and be in control of all the gazillion planning tasks!

<https://www.weddinghappy.com>

PINTEREST

If ever an app was made for wedding planning, it's Pinterest. Find inspiration for everything from bouquets to cakes and everything in between. Set up your own private boards to keep track of ideas, make notes on each photo and then share them with your florist/bridal party/cake maker. A photo really is worth a thousand words!

<https://www.pinterest.com>

